

Paint Tuscany with Michael Chesley Johnson

Saturday, June 16, 2018 to Saturday, June 23, 2018

Join Michael Chesley Johnson for a relaxing, fun-filled week of exploring the Tuscan countryside with sketching materials in hand.

You'll visit ancient villages, artisan shops, wineries and markets, and delight in the unique experience of staying at Fattoria Bacio, a winery estate, at the start of a beautiful Tuscan summer. Michael's teaching will inspire you to dive in and explore these locations in the medium of your choice – and have fun doing it!

Each day, he'll share his secrets of landscape painting. You'll learn to capture the essence of Tuscany quickly without sacrificing mood or magic. Michael's enthusiastic and encouraging teaching style will bring out the best in you.

Taking a sketching kit of your favorite medium will enrich your travel experience by allowing you to slow down and really see all the things that make Italy special – the art and architecture, the scenery, the food and wine, and the people. This is a different way of traveling, one where you connect on a deeper level with the place you visit, and it becomes a part of you forever.

The ultimate goal of this workshop is to soak up the spirit of Tuscany while creating lasting memories of painting, learning, exploring, making new friends, and enjoying great food and wine in an incredible location.

Michael Chesley Johnson divides his year between Campobello Island, New Brunswick, Canada, and Sedona, Arizona. A popular teacher, he has taught hundreds of workshops in the US and Canada over 15 years. A Contributing Editor for The Artist's Magazine, he is the author of Backpacker Painting: Outdoors with Oil and Pastel. His work is in major corporate and private collections. "Painting the landscape isn't just about recording what you see," he says, "but very much about the experience."
